For me, the most interesting question was:

- If we can relate anyhow with the character of Rip Van Winkle
- The relateability of Rip.
- If there was anything we filled into the void of Rip's missing years

One thing I learned from this discussion:

- Information about the author
- Alternative interpretations based on the supporting material.
- Rip was relatable in a sense that he's avoiding his problems

What could be improved in the discussion:

- Nothing comes into my mind.
- Maybe less plot discussion would be nice. I would have rather talked about things that go beyond the text a bit, like some symbols, metaphors etc.
