

Leader: Klára Langmaierová

The group leader...

...was well-prepared for the discussion: 5.0

...opened the session with a clear introduction of the topic: 5.0

...got everyone to participate: 5.0

For me, the most interesting question was:

- What has changed between the Inn where the people hanged out and the congress. That it has changed politically
- The whole discussion about question- Name main themes of the story.
- What was the difference between the inn and the hotel, and what the symbolised
- What is the difference between the hotel and the inn?

One thing I learned from this discussion:

- That the introduction started as a historical fiction and that it could confuse us and puts us off not to read it anymore.
- The name Rip symbolizes the past, which is gone- died.
- The pseudonyms the author made up and used
- Washington Irving had many pseudonyms.

What could be improved in the discussion:

- The group discussion was led very well by the leader, I think I enjoyed it thoroughly.
- Klára could speak louder, beside that, it was great.
- I can't think of anything right now
